

How to get your Class 2 Truck Licence

Get your class 2 learner licence.

To obtain a Class 2 learners licence you must have held a full current NZ Class 1(car) licence, for more than 6 months.

The Class 2 learner licence.

To get this you must pass the on-line road code test at a driver licencing agency e.g. AA. You will get 25 general road code questions and 10 questions specific to Class 2 vehicles, most people presume they know the general road code but this is the one that catches people out, as there have been several changes over the last few years.

NO WAIT TIME: Once you have got a Class 2 learner licence, you can book one of our NZTA approved Class 2 courses straight away.

- Go to www.drivingtests.co.nz for free on-line Road Code Tests that can help you with your study.
- Go to www.roadcodepractice.co.nz to buy the official Practice Learner Licence Theory Tests.

Book your learner licence test at a driver licencing agency e.g. AA

You must take with you a medical certificate (unless you have had one in the last 5 years for driver licencing and your health hasn't changed).

The certificate must be less than 60 days old (we advise that you do not get this until just before you are ready to book in at the AA).

Take 2 forms of ID, one for identity and one for proof of address.

Successfully passed your class 2 learner licence ring Candrive straight away to book your Class 2 full licence course. 0508 226 374

Our courses take 2 to 2 1/2 days depending on numbers and include both the fatigue/logbook (unit standard 24089) and class 2 theory and a practical assessment drive (unit standard 17574).

What happens next?

After successful completion of the theory and practical assessments Candrive will issue you with a NZTA certificate for your full Class 2 licence. Take it to your local driver licencing office and they will issue you with a temporary paper licence with your full Class 2 licence endorsed on it. You are now able to drive a Class 2 vehicle.

It takes approximately 15 working days to receive your new photo licence in the mail.

What can I drive with a Class 2 licence.

You need a full Class 2 licence if you are driving a medium rigid vehicle that weighs more than 6000kgs and less than 18,000kgs. A class 2 licence will allow you to drive a variety of vehicles. Ideal if you are looking for a change of career or a first step into the transport industry.