

How to get your Class 4 Truck Licence

Get your class 4 learner licence.

To obtain a Class 4 learners licence you must have held a full current NZ Class 2 licence, for more than 6 months, if you are under 25 years old. If you are over 25, you only need to hold it for 3 months.

The Class 4 learner licence.

All you have to do is go and pay for your Class 4 learner licence at a driver licencing agency e.g. AA (there is no road code test this time)

NO WAIT TIME: Once you have got a Class 4 learner licence, you can book one of our NZTA approved Class 4 courses straight away.

You must take with you a medical certificate, unless you have had one in the last 5 years for driver licencing and your health hasn't changed. The certificate must be less than 60 days old (we advise that you do not get this until just before you are ready to book in at the AA). Along with your proof of identification

Please see NZTA Factsheet 20 for the acceptable identification required.

Got your class 4 learner licence ring Candrive straight away to book your Class 4 full licence course. Call free - 0508 226 374

Our courses take 1 to 2 1/2 days depending on numbers and previous training and include both the fatigue/logbook (unit standard 24089 if you didn't achieve this when you did your full Class 2 licence) and class 4 theory and a practical assessment drive (unit standard 17576).

What happens next?

After successful completion of the theory and practical assessments Candrive will issue you with a NZTA certificate for your full Class 4 licence. Take it to your local driver licencing office and they will issue you with a temporary paper licence with your full Class 4 licence endorsed on it. You are now able to drive a Class 4 vehicle.

You will receive your new photo licence in the mail within 2 weeks.

What can I drive with a full Class 4 licence?

Rigid vehicles that weigh over 18,000kgs